IMPORTANT INFORMATION if previously enrolled at a Queensland State School or State High School.

Student and parent details will automatically move across to high school, through OneSchool. These details must be correct at the current school, or they will come across incorrectly into high school. Some details cannot be altered in OneSchool until your child physically attends the school. This also applies to custody changes and any emergency contacts. Parents must ensure their student's details are correct at their current Queensland Government State School prior to enrolling into Albany Creek State High School, including Emergency Contacts. If your details are incorrect in OneSchool, you may not get enrolment confirmation or important information pertaining to subject selection and student report cards.
